Finally some action! We went to the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary, near Ubud. Awesome!

Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary

Welcome to the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary. About 340 monkeys live here. They can climb and jump through many different types of trees in the forest, and you can also see them at the three temples here.

We want visitors to learn about the monkeys, the forest and the temples. Here are some tips to make sure you have a fun visit:

- You shouldn't wear jewelry. The monkeys like bright things and try to take them.
- You should ask your guide questions about the sanctuary. He knows a lot of information about the area.
- You shouldn't carry food. The monkeys can smell it and try to grab it.
- You shouldn't feed the monkeys. They can get excited if visitors feed them, and they can bite.
- You should take a lot of photos. The sanctuary is very beautiful.

Predicting

1 Look at the pictures and discuss.

What do you think the story is about?

◆ Read and check your predictions.

A long time ago in India, on the banks of the Ganges river, lived two families: the Pandavas and the Kuaravas. The Pandavas had 5 brothers, and the Kuaravas had 100 brothers. The two families were cousins and, as children, they played and had fun together. But as they grew older, their games changed. The Kuaravas wanted to control all the land near the river, called Bharata, and they wanted to be kings.

To win the land from the Pandavas, the Kuaravas tricked the oldest brother, Yudhistira, in a game of dice.

The Pandavas left Bharata for 12 years. During this time, Yudhistira guided his younger brothers and taught them the ways of goodness.

At the same time, the Kuaravas learned some very different lessons. From the time they were children, their uncle Sangkuni taught them the ways of evil. Their uncle taught them how to be mean and selfish, but most importantly, that they were better than their cousins the Pandavas, and they should be kings of all of Bharata.

◆ Discuss the question.

What do you think happens next?

◆ Read the end of the story to check your predictions.

After the 12 years passed, the Pandavas returned to Bharata. The Kuaravas didn't give them their land back. There was a terrible battle that lasted 18 days, and the Pandavas won. However, they never lived to see their victory. All five brothers died in the battle.
